You are required to undertake an e-Diagnostic test on your arrival in Cambridge. As a result of this test you may be required to attend the In-Sessional Programme.

For further information on the In-Sessional programme, and registration details please review: <http://www.langcen.cam.ac.uk/lc/adtis/in-sessional.html>

If you do not wish to take the e-Diagnostic test on arrival, you MUST re-take a further test of your English (IELTS or TOEFL) and obtain a level that meets the minimum standard requested in your language condition before you can be admitted to Cambridge.

- 2) I have at least £375 available to cover the cost of the ADTIS In-Sessional course in addition to the funds required to cover the cost of my degree course.
- 3) If recommended I will register for the ADTIS In-Sessional course and any other sessions as recommended by the Language Centre at least by the division of term.
<http://www.cam.ac.uk/univ/termdates.html>.
- 4) If recommended I will attend the ADTIS In-Sessional course, and any other sessions as recommended by the Language Centre
- 5) I understand that if I subsequently do not attend the e-Diagnostic test or register for the recommended in-sessional programme by the division of term I will not have met my language condition of admission, and the University of Cambridge reserves the right to re-instate the language condition of my offer. Applicants with outstanding conditions will not be permitted to continue their academic course, and will be removed from the register of graduate students.

6) I understand that if I do not attend the in-session programme (if recommended) the University of Cambridge reserves the right to remove me from the register of graduate students.

By signing this document I am agreeing to the above conditions.
