Applicant Declaration

I confirm that:

- 1) I have read the information given on the Continuation webpage
- 2) I understand that although I can undertake a second Cambridge degree of the same type and its associated examinations, it is not possible to be approved for, or to have a second degree of the same type conferred on me. I understand that I will instead receive a certificate of satisfactory completion on successfully completing all the academic requirements of the course.
- 3) I have discussed this with my prospective department and degree committee prior to submitting my application.

By signing this document I am agreeing to the above statements.
